

Maritime Policy & Management

Volume 38 Number 1 January 2011

Contents

- 1 A consideration for developing a dry port system in Indochina area
Ngoc-Hien Do, Ki-Chan Nam and Quynh-Lam Ngoc Le
- 11 Future cost scenarios for reduction of ship CO<sub>2</sub> emissions
Magnus S. Eide, Tore Longva, Peter Hoffmann, Øyvind Endresen and Stig B. Dalsøren
- 39 Potential sociological impacts of unfair treatment of seafarers
Michael Ekow Manuel
- 51 An application of multi-criteria analysis to the location of a container hub port in South Africa
Theo Notteboom
- 81 Water-tight or sinking? A consideration of the standards of the contemporary assessment practices underpinning seafarer licence examinations and their implications for employers
Helen Sampson, Victor Gekara and Michael Bloor
- 93 Using SCOR model with fuzzy MCDM approach to assess competitiveness positioning of supply chains: focus on shipbuilding supply chains
Abouzar Zangouinezhad, Adel Azar and Aboulfazl Kazazi

Recommended by the International Association of Maritime Economists

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group