

SPECIAL ISSUE:

Tourism and Poverty Reduction: Theory and Practice in Less Economically Developed Countries

GUEST EDITORS: ANNA SPENCELEY AND DOROTHEA MEYER

CONTENTS

Articles

Tourism and poverty reduction: theory and practice in less economically developed countries
Anna Spenceley and Dorothea Meyer 297

Tourism and development at work: 15 years of tourism and poverty reduction within the SNV Netherlands Development Organisation
John Hummel and Rene van der Duim 319

Influenced and influential: the role of tour operators and development organisations in tourism and poverty reduction in Ecuador
Louise Mary Erskine and Dorothea Meyer 339

Blessing or curse? The political economy of tourism development in Tanzania
Fred Nelson 359

Tourism revenue sharing policy at Bwindi Impenetrable National Park, Uganda: a policy arrangements approach
Wilber Manyisa Ahebw, Rene van der Duim, and Chris Sandbrook 377

The role of tourism employment in poverty reduction and community perceptions of conservation and tourism in southern Africa
Susan Lynne Snyman 395

Tourism and poverty alleviation in Fiji: comparing the impacts of small- and large-scale tourism enterprises
Regina Scheyvens and Matt Russell 417

A critical analysis of tourism, gender and poverty reduction
Hazel Tucker and Brenda Boonabaana 437

Value chain approaches to assessing the impact of tourism on low-income households in developing countries
Jonathan Mitchell 457

Tourism-agriculture linkages in rural South Africa: evidence from the accommodation sector
Christian M. Rogerson 477

Social enterprises in tourism: an exploratory study of operational models and success factors
Janina von der Weppen and Janet Cochrane 497