

VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE

"We have benefited a lot from the ownership structure that we have, with a stock-listed company that provides the discipline but also a family that is willing to take the long view on investments"

SØREN SKOU
P36

DATA HUB

TRADE STATISTICS

Transatlantic volumes increased by 8% in the third quarter

P04

DATA HUB

LOAD FACTORS

A look at vessel utilisation on some of the key European routes

P08

DATA HUB

WORLD FLEET UPDATE

The world container fleet stood at 5,041 vessels comprising 17.8m teu at the end of October

P10

DATA HUB

TRADE ROUTE INTELLIGENCE

Volumes on the Europe-Middle East trade lane continue to recover, but declines in the price of oil raise questions over the region's future growth prospects

P16

CARRIERS

CHINA SHIPPING RAISES THE STAKES IN GAME OF SURVIVAL

The world's seventh-largest carrier has offloaded assets in order to avoid delisting, but is its future any brighter?

P18

CARRIER RANKINGS

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

Top 20 carriers see merit in global alliances as cost-cutting pressures intensify and solo status loses its allure

P22

CARRIER RANKINGS

SMALLER LINES ADJUST TO THE CASCADE EFFECT

Niche and regional operators are already upgrading or at least re-evaluating how they operate their fleets

P27

PORTS

MEDITERRANEAN MEGA HUBS CONTINUE TO REAP THE REWARDS

An analysis of the region's booming transshipment business

P32

VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE

WHY SØREN SKOU IS A WORRIED MAN

Maersk Line may lead the pack in terms of profitability, but chief executive Søren Skou still has plenty to keep him awake at night

P36

SHIPPERS

SHIPPER SENTIMENT SURVEY 2014

Every year Containerisation International surveys shippers and freight forwarders to find out what they think about the latest developments in the container shipping sector. This year, the survey centred on the development of shipping line alliances

P42

52

PORTS

HALIFAX: SMALL PORT WITH BIG AMBITIONS

Halifax president and chief executive Karen Oldfield talks about how to ensure the Nova Scotia port stays in the game

P52

BOX WORLD BRIEFING

ANALYSTS CAST DOUBT OVER TSA DECISION TO SCRAP GRIs

Proposal of minimum rates fails to tackle overcapacity

P56

BOX WORLD BRIEFING

NEWS ROUND-UP

US congestion

P59

K+N volume growth

P60

Ocean Three's transpacific market share

P62

CKYHE eyes US trades

P64

Box lines Ebola pledge

P67

Results round-up

P68

GUEST COLUMNISTS

ACTION NEEDED ON PORT CONGESTION

The growing problem of port congestion needs to be tackled by an industry forum at a global level, writes Chris Welsh of the Global Shippers' Forum

P71

SUPPLY CHAINS WILL ADAPT AS 3D PRINTING EVOLVES

GT Nexus' Boris Felgendreher looks at the impact that 3D printing could have on supply chains

P72

TEESPORT

THE BEST CONNECTED FEEDER PORT IN THE UK.

GLOBAL MARKETS ON YOUR DOORSTEP

WITH OVER 25 VESSEL CALLS A WEEK AND CONNECTIONS TO MOST OF THE WORLD'S LARGEST SHIPPING LINES, TEESPORT CAN HELP BRING YOU CLOSER TO THE MAJOR HUB PORTS OF EUROPE AND OVER 13 STRATEGIC MARKETS.

PD PORTS
A Brookfield Ports Company

WWW.PDPORTS.CO.UK