

For further in depth coverage go to Fairplay.IHS.com
Contact us by email at safetyatsea@ihs.com

Contents

Features

P16 Lifeline back to shore

Captain Al Rudaini reflects on how communications have evolved over the past 50 years and the important role they play in keeping seafarers safe

P18 Bulker safety

An examination of some of the biggest areas of concern on bulker safety after Stellar Daisy

P24 Medical and health

How to protect ships from health risks associated with pests and fumigation

P28 The right fit

PPE manufacturers are improving product designs by focusing more on ergonomics

P30 Safety at Sea awards

Find out who is on the shortlist for the Safety at Sea awards, announced at Nor-Shipping

Regulars

P4 Our say

Digital communications are improving safety

P6 News round-up

Abandoned crew in the UAE speaks out; UK government urged to help imprisoned crew. Plus seafarer's secondhand smoke campaign; Russia phases out old vessels; and union finds seafarers have too little access to video calls

P12 Security news

South China Sea politics could help shipping

P14 Training news

Tailored accident response; Shell in Philippines

P32 Security insight

Why there has been resurgence in piracy

P33 Regulation insight

Safety lessons from a liftboat fire

P34 Near-miss reports

Valuable lessons from sharing experiences

P36 MARS

Simple repair leads to death of engineer

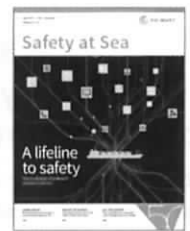

P39 Products

P42 View astern

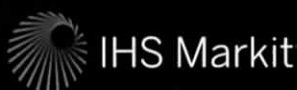

Shipping should work with digital start-ups

On the cover

Communication has undergone a digital revolution. SAS analyses the safety and welfare benefits it has brought and what may lie ahead.

Cover images: Shutterstock/IHS Markit

Discuss, Learn, Network

IHS Markit's Maritime Group on LinkedIn is a global group for ship owners, managers, operators with an interest in global shipping and trade.

Join our Maritime & Trade Group today on www.ihs.com/maritimelinkedin

