

IN THIS ISSUE/

VOL. 66 No. 11 September 15, 2010

Features

2/What's on the Horizon? Now that Labor Day has passed, Editor Ed Watkins writes hoteliers should look ahead to Fall elections and proposed legislation.

16/Ahead of the Curve Dolce refines the DNA of meetings hotels with an emphasis in Europe.

25/Design & Decor Handbook
Lodging Hospitality's annual guide to design: easy-to-read charts highlighting vendors by category, a directory to those companies as well as a listing of design and architecture firms and purchasing companies focused on the hospitality industry.

Departments

38/Technically Speaking Top-Drawer Technology at Mandarin Oriental; Think Hospitality Technology, Not PMS.

42/Back of the House The latest in hotel products and services.

Check In

8/Back From the Dead Drawbridge Hotel and Convention Center in Fort Mitchell, KY gets a fresh start with a makeover from industry veteran Morris Lasky.

12/Show Highlights Boutique Hotels Upcoming Lifestyle/Boutique Hotel Development Conference at Miami's Fontainebleau is ideal networking and education opportunity for owners, investors and operators.

14/Rushmore Everyone likes free stuff, and the lodging industry offers plenty of it from various online sources.

NOW @ LHONLINE.COM

HOTEL DEVELOPMENT CENTER:

Lodging Hospitality's newest feature brings together all the tools, resources and information an owner or operator might need. Find information, contacts and links to industry events, associations and consultants, as well as to the top management, brand, purchasing and design companies. Also try out the franchise calculator or peruse the franchise fact file, which breaks down all the fees and costs for the major brands. Check out our home page or go directly to LHonline.com/hotel-development-resources.